Grant was the choice for the position and accepted with a few well chosen remarks. For Clerk for the coming term Paul F. Stanhope was reelected, and for Treasurer Mr. F. ## Cannery Man Passes Away

A. E. Woolard, at one time owner of the Apex Fish Company, of Anacortes, Wash., and one of the best known business men of this section, died April 8 at his home in Pasadena, California, where he has resided since 1908. Before that time he lived in Bellingham. Mr. Woolard entered the fish trap business about fifteen years ago and built a trap at West Beach, Whidby Island. He then bought the Apex Packing Company, of Anacortes, and changed the name to the Apex Fish Company. Later he built a cannery at Wrangell, Alaska, where he spent two summers as superintendent of the plant. At the time of his death he was reputed to be worth anywhere from $100,000 to $250,000. — Pacific Fisherman.

Start Work On New Dam

By a plan formed at a meeting of the council and business men of Wrangell last Wednesday evening, the work on the new dam which was stopped last fall, will be resumed the first of May and will be rushed to completion.

Last Tuesday some twenty of the business men of the town made a trip up to the works and made an examination of the work done which proved very satisfactory. Although considerable money was spent on the dam last season it was not without cause and it is a matter of great importance that the dam be finished as soon as possible.

Comedian At The Rink

Mr. Ira Robertson the versatile comedian with the assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Purinton will put on a comedy Saturday night at the Rink that promises to be replete with funny situations from the rise of the curtain until the fall. Mr. Robertson is a comedian of rare ability being an impersonator of most any character that he may be called upon to perform. Watch for that Chinese specialty of his next week, it is a scream. With due apologies to Capt. Jinks, Ira is some Chink.

Noted Lecturer Speak Here

Mrs. Cornelia Templeton Hatcher

Mrs. Cornelia Templeton Hatcher A. M., organizer and lecturer of National W. C. T. U. and President of the Womans Christian Temperance Union of Alaska, who was scheduled to deliver an address at the Rink last night was unable to do so on account of the steamer City of Seattle not arriving until this morning, so the postponed lecture will be given Friday night at the Rink.

Mrs. Hatcher will take for her subject "The Temperance Movement, In Pictures, Song and Story" which will be illustrated by 50 picture slides. This lecture is heralded as one in which Mrs. Hatcher well proves her mastery of her subject. Mrs. Hatcher comes highly recommended as a quiet and forceful speaker, and one who never fails to hold and please her audience.

The lecture will start at 8:30 p. m. and everyone is cordially invited to be present. There will be no admission charged but a free will offering will be taken during the course of the evening.

A good show at the Wrangell Photoshow tonight.

Coming "The Great Polar Hunt" The Rink.

Hypnotist Here Tuesday

What will prove to be one of the biggest attractions that has ever been presented at the Rink will be "Saona" the famous Hypnotist on Tuesday, April 27th. We have watched the press very close in regard to this act and find them to a unit speak of his cleverness. Arrangements have been made with Mr. Grant of the Wrangell Hotel and Saona will give a demonstration of his wonderful gifts in the afternoon when he will put a subject to sleep in the window and just before the start of the show will awaken him in full view of the audience. He has a great variety of demonstrations that are really marvelous, such as passing the complete current from the Electric light plant through a subjects mouth, and by a motion taking the blood from parts of the body and calling it back at will. There will be plenty of good rich comedy to keep the audience in perfect humor. Mr. Ira Robertson will entertain with one of his specialties and the Rink photoplays will make a show that is seldom seen here. The admission will be 50c adults and children 25c. Remember the date Tuesday, April 27.

Canoe Pass Moving Plant

According to reports the Canoe Pass Packing Company has bought or leased Jack Dalton's plot near the steamer wharf in Cordova and will move one line of machinery from the cannery at Canoe Pass and install it in the new location at once. The Canoe Pass cannery is of two lines, and was built in 1912 and was operated only in that year.

Big Picture At Photoshow

"The Valley Of The Moon" by Jack London, taken in California, promises to be the next big feature show at the Photoshow. This picture is by the Famous Players so you are guaranteed the best there is. Watch for the bills.

"The $1,000,000 Mystery" coming to the Rink.

See Ira Robertson at the Rink.

First Link In New Road

There is on board the Mariposa, which was in port last Wednesday morning, the first link in the real construction of the Government railroad in Alaska. Col. W. P. Richardson of the road commission was among the passengers and part of her cargo was eighty tons of second-class rails, also buckets and machinery and equipment to be used in the preliminary work. This marks the beginning of the great work which will be rushed as fast as possible, and according to statements of Col. W. P. Richardson he will attend to the building of a bridge across the Snake River at Nome and one across the Chena slough at Fairbanks this season.

Father Of Alaska Drummer Dies

Aberdeen, Wash., April 14.—Nathaniel Parsons, 73, the man who platted the first land in Aberdeen, died here last night.

He came from a rich New York family and a number of years ago inherited a big legacy, which he lost through the failure of a Los Angeles bank.

Nathaniel Parsons is the father of N. Parsons, an Alaska traveling man.

A Strange Recipe For Acting.
Perhaps the most striking instance of voluntary hallucination is that recorded by an intimate friend of the actor Talma. Langlois states that the great tragedian told him that whenever he entered on the stage he was accustomed by force of will to make his brilliant audience disappear and to substitute for them a house full of skeletons. The emotion which these ghastly creatures of his own imagination excited served, he declared, to give additional force to his own impersonations.

How Paul Jones Countered.
When the English government denounced John Paul Jones as a pirate the American naval hero neatly countered. He replied that he had looked in the dictionary and found a pirate defined as "an enemy of mankind," and, "as England was then at war with the whole of America, the greater part of Europe and much of Asia, not to speak of a bit of Africa, she in point of fact came as near being the enemy of mankind as could well be conceived and that England was the worse the pirate and not Paul Jones."

Curly Hair.
Curly hair is a constitutional, hereditary phenomenon. The curly hair curls because it is flat. Straight hair is cylindrical. Being flat, the hair has a natural tendency to assume a spiral shape. Cutting has no effect, as the cause of the flatness lies in the shape of the follicle. Hair issuing from a slanting, crooked follicle is bound to be flattened and twisted.

Feed the Brute.
"Did you put up many preserves last fall?"
"No. I intended to, but there were so many new novels to read I didn't have time."
"My dear, take my advice. You will get along much better with your husband if you give less attention to current fiction and more to currant jelly."
—Boston Transcript.

Printing Point Does Not Bob Up and Down

In an L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter the point on the paper which is to receive the type impression is stationary at the instant the type hits. The carriage does not bob up and down when the shift is made to write capitals.

Why?
Because the type is shifted—not the carriage.

The only movement of the carriage is back and forth on its closely adjusted ball bearing runways—and this does not take place while the print is being made. There is no lifting of the carriage.

This is one reason why L. C. Smith & Bros. typewriting is free from blurs and every letter in the right place.

The fur of the coon is so thick that the animal can rob bees without being stung.

She—Why do so many men go to the bad? He—In their eagerness to be known as good fellows.

How She Knew.
Mr. McSosh—What was it that made you think I'd been drinking last night? Mrs. McSosh—Oh, I don't know. I suppose the fact that you were fearfully drunk had as much to do with it as anything.—Cleveland Leader.

Wasted Energy.
"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," remarked the husband as he surveyed her gown.

"You can't jolly me into wearing this dress another season," responded his wife.—Pittsburgh Post.

Something He Had Forgotten.
Small Boy—Mister, kin you change a ten dollar bill? Mister—No, sonny. That belongs strictly to my wife's share of domestic duties. I might have been able to change one long ago, but I'm clean out o' practice now.

A Pointer.
Two thieves were breaking into a door when the master of the house, hearing them, looked out of the window and said: "Friends, come a little later. We are not yet in bed!"—Humor of Spain.

He Was Enlightened.
We don't approve of the impertinence, but perhaps in the following case the grouchy street car passenger got no more than he deserved. He had asked a conductor if he knew when a certain train left the North station, and on being answered in the negative he exclaimed offensively, "Why is it that this road employs so many farmers?" "Just to look after the cattle that travel on the cars," was the conductor's quick retort.—Boston Transcript.
